Few sporting classics last 100 years and fewer still continue to attract global interest in the way the Isle of Man TT does. The Tourist Trophy originated as a car race in 1904 but has been the domain of motorcycles since 1907. It is widely regarded as the last of the great road races in motor sport, annually drawing thousands of dedicated fans to a gem of an island in the middle of the Irish Sea. Steeped in nostalgia and brimming with atmosphere, controversy and spine-chilling action, the magic of the oldest race on the international calendar is captured in a neatly-sized book packed with 120 monochrome and full colour images. TT Centenary goes right back to the original St John's Course and also includes images from the Clypse Course used for a short period in the 1950's. The awesome 37.7 mile Snafell Mountain Course, which was the home of the British Motorcycle Grand Prix for four decades, remains the ultimate challenge to every discerning road racer.
