To fill the gap the government launched a consultation on how central government should take account of social value in the award of central government contracts. Although the consultation is aimed at central government, the consultation contains a useful framework for testing social value which could be adopted by any contracting authority, where proportionate and relevant to the contract.

How to evaluate social value in public procurement

The Cabinet Office, which has coordinated much of the government ' s pandemic response, was the biggest single buyer of consulting services, with £53.8m of contracts awarded.
