Understanding Tourism introduces tourism students to concepts drawn from critical theory, cultural studies and the social sciences. It does so with a light and readable touch, highlighting the ideas that underlie contemporary critical tourism studies in a practical and engaging way. Specifically, the authors examine how post-structuralist thought has led to a re-imagining of power relationships and the ways in which they are central to the production and consumption of tourism experiences. Eleven clear, relevant chapters provide an accessible introduction to tourism defining, explaining and developing the key issues and methods in this exciting field.

This book is a comprehensive resource for pupils studying National 4 Biology, which adheres closely to the SQA syllabus. Each section of the book matches a mandatory unit of the syllabus, and each chapter corresponds to a key area. In addition to the core text, the book contains a variety of special features: · Activities to consolidate learning · Worked examples to demonstrate key processes · In-text questions to test knowledge and understanding · End-of-chapter questions for homework and assessment · Summaries of key facts and concepts · Integrated advice on the Added Value Unit · Answer section at the back of the book
